Defendant Young Ju Kwon was present with his court appointed counsel, Attorney Danilo Aguilar. Government was represented by Jamie Bowers, AUSA.

Government stated that a plea agreement has been signed by the defendant, his attorney and the government. Additionally, a Consent to Rule 20 Transfer for Plea and Sentence has also been signed by the defendant, his attorney and the government in order that defendant enter a plea of guilty and be sentenced in the District Court of the Northern Mariana Islands.

Defendant was sworn and examined as to his understanding of his constitutional rights, his right to trial and his understanding of the Plea Agreement.

Defendant was advised that he had been indicted in the United States District Court, Territory of Guam, and that he had the right to be transferred to the Territory of Guam and defend himself and go to trial in Guam or that he could waive the transfer and enter a plea of guilty in this district.

Court finds that defendant has made a knowing and voluntary waiver of his right to removal under Rule 40.

Arraignment:

Defendant waived reading of the indictment and waived his right to be removed to Guam to answer the charges in Guam and requested to enter a plea of guilty in the District of the Northern Mariana Islands. Defendant stated that he wished to enter a plea of GUILTY to the charges against him.

Defendant entered a plea of GUILTY. Court found that the defendant was fully competent to enter a knowing and voluntary plea. Court accepted the plea and the Plea Agreement.
